New school management is taking responsibility after the election of society, marking a significant transition in leadership. This change aims to improve school education quality, ensure transparency, and foster community participation in school development work.

Physical fitness and cultural activities are indeed focus areas, alongside education, for students' holistic development, emphasizing moral values to nurture noble citizens.

Our students participated in various competitions at the Zonal Level in sub-junior, junior & senior groups & Won Prizes in different categories like Music, Recitation, Poster making, Painting, Debate, Slogan writing, Best out of Waste and also in Volleyball.

Special mention in Solo Classical music got 1st prize in District Level & 2nd prize in State Level.

Cleanliness as focus activity

Maintaining cleanliness in schools is crucial for students' health, academic success, and overall well-being. A clean environment reduces distractions, promotes focus, and fosters a sense of responsibility. Regular cleaning and disinfection prevent the spread of illnesses, while hygiene education instills healthy habits. Let's prioritize cleanliness to create a conducive learning atmosphere

The school's Annual Day celebration on December 6th, 2025, will showcase students' sports activities and recognize their achievements through cultural performances, highlighting their talents and hard work throughout the academic year.

The focus of moral values for students in school is to shape their character, promote social harmony, and prepare them for future challenges. Key moral values include

- Honesty: Being truthful and transparent in words and actions
- Respect: Treating others with dignity and valuing their opinions
- Responsibility: Owning up to tasks and actions, and being accountable
- Compassion: Understanding and supporting others in need
- Fairness: Ensuring equal opportunities and avoiding favoritism
- Perseverance: Staying determined despite challenges
- Courage: Facing fears and standing up for what's right
- Kindness: Showing empathy and care towards others
- Integrity: Being honest, trustworthy, and ethical
- Gratitude: Appreciating what one has and thanking others

These moral values help students develop a strong foundation for life, promoting academic excellence, social skills, leadership qualities, and lifelong benefits .
